Embracing Our Neighbors with Jesus' Unconditional Love

Gabriel's Glad Tidings

Hey friends,

This month marks my fourth anniversary of being a Comfort Dog! (Where has the time gone?!?)

It's been a busy and exciting four years, too.

My handlers and I have visited lots of places and have made lots of friends.

Here are some places we've been:

- Sutherland Springs, TX
- Parkland, FL
- Santa Fe, TX
- El Paso, TX
- Odessa / Midland, TX
- Fort Hood

And here are places we visit in Houston:

- Our Early Childhood Center
- Lutheran High North
- Memorial Elementary School
- Brookdale the Heights
- Camp Hope
- HCSO 911 Call Center

Like the song says, I've been everywhere, man!

My Jesus says, "Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for thereby some have entertained angels unawares" (Hebrews 13:2).

I don't know if I've met any angels, but I have met some great people and brought them Jesus' love.

I hope you do the same — and stay PAWSOME!

— Your friend Gabriel
